

Native American and Indigenous Studies Minor

Register for the new NAIS minor!

Interested in learning about the histories and contemporary cultures of Native American and Indigenous Peoples in the Borderlands and abroad?

Explore theory and praxis, cultural history, indigenous sovereignty, colonization, resistance and mobilization, literature and cultural expression, self-governance and capacity building, indigenous law and politics, systems of justice, and international community-building through the interdisciplinary NAIS minor (18 credit hours) with courses offered by leading UTEP experts and practitioners.

For more information, contact Dr. Olga Lauter (olauter@utep.edu)
And visit our website at: <https://www.utep.edu/liberalarts/native-american-and-indigenous-studies/>